Welcome to Brea's Youth Theatre production of *Aladdin Jr.!

Sponsored by the City of Brea, this popular program encourages teamwork while teaching children and teens the fundamentals of the performing arts. For more than 30 years, Stagelight Productions, under the leadership of Janice Kraus, has served as the City's producing partner for this popular program.

Safety of all our participants and staff is always our number one priority. Since the program returned from its pandemic hiatus, we have mirrored our protocols after those put in place by the local school district (BOUSD). Though restrictions have eased, we remain dedicated to the health and safety of everyone involved in the program. We will be sure to relay all pertinent information as efficiently as we can. I can assure you that we will be doing everything in our power to make the experience as safe and seamless as possible while still maintaining the high quality of shows our BYT participants have come to expect.

Communication is essential to a successful theatrical production. Enclosed you will find important details about auditions, casting, rehearsal schedules and, of course, the performance itself. We also encourage you to log onto stagelightproductions.com for updated information. If you have a question at any time during auditions, rehearsals and the production, do not hesitate to ask Curtis Theatre staff, or a member of the Stagelight Productions staff. The Producer, Janice Kraus, will also be available at every rehearsal.

We want your experience with us to be a positive one. If you have any questions or concerns regarding Brea's Youth Theatre, please feel free to contact me at (714) 990-7213. On behalf of the Curtis Theatre, thank you for joining us!

Sincerely,

COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What if my child cannot attend auditions?

If your child cannot make it to auditions, they will automatically be cast in the ensemble.

When do we begin rehearsals?

Rehearsals begin Friday, November 8th.

I heard the children are split into multiple casts. How will I know which cast my child is in?

Cast assignments will be assigned two weeks after auditions. The producer needs this time to take into account participant scheduling conflicts.

How do I get updates about rehearsals, deadlines, and other key information?

A detailed list of rehearsals and deadlines will be distributed within the first two weeks of rehearsal. All information will also be delivered by email, with supplemental updates posted on the Stagelight Productions Facebook Group.

How often does my child have to attend rehearsals?

Typically, each participant is required to rehearse two times per week, though this may vary depending on your child's age group and role. Approximately three weeks before the show, rehearsals will increase. Please note any conflicts (other activities, family vacations, etc.) at the time of auditions. This information will be helpful in scheduling your child.

What if my five-year-old can't keep up with the older children?

Auditions and rehearsals are broken down by age range. About three weeks before the show's opening, the entire cast comes together to ready the show for the performances.

What if my child cannot attend rehearsal?

Please email Janet Youngblood (janetleeyoungblood@gmail.com) prior to rehearsal to report all absences that are not listed on your child's conflict sheet.

What is the refund policy?

All refund requests must be made 3 business days prior to the start of program. No refunds are permitted once the course begins. Some courses require that your space be filled prior to being eligible for a refund. In the event of a course cancellation, a full refund will be issued. If your request is approved, you may choose to receive credit to your Brea Community Center (BCC) customer account, or you may choose to receive a refund. Refunds are subject to a $5.00 processing fee. Check payments are not eligible for a refund until 3 weeks after the original payment date to ensure that funds have cleared. Payments received by cash or check will be refunded by check. Checks will be sent by mail and typically take 2-3 weeks to arrive. Credit card refunds are returned to the card that was originally charged, and typically take 2-5 business days to appear on your statement.

What if I have a question?

Please do not hesitate to ask. Janet Youngblood, Stagelight Administrative Manager, is available at every rehearsal, and she may also be reached at (714) 809-0987. A member of the Curtis Theatre's staff will also be present at every rehearsal. ## PARTICIPANT BEHAVIOR GUIDELINES

Constructive and Progressive Discipline: Discipline used should be constructive, progressive, and at all times shall reflect the highest standard of values. Corporal punishment is never permitted. To provide a positive theatrical experience and ensure the safety of all participants, the following steps will be taken for children who exhibit unacceptable behavior:

1. Disruptive behavior will be reported to the Producer, Janice Kraus. From there, Janice will conduct a Discipline Conference with the participant. At this time, the participant in question will be asked to sign and date a Discipline Conference Report. Stagelight Productions staff will notify parents.
2. If the disruptive behavior continues, the participant's parents will be notified. Producer, Janice Kraus, will have a conference with the cast member and his/her parent(s). Both the participant and his/her parent(s) will be asked to sign and date a second Discipline Conference Report. (Please note: The parent and child's signature indicate only that the conference took place and does not indicate agreement with the Producer.)
3. If the disruptive behavior continues, the participant's parent(s) will be asked to attend all remaining rehearsals and remain Backstage during performances to monitor their child's behavior.
4. If the previous interventions are not successful, the participant will be dismissed from the production. Participation in future productions will be at the discretion of Stagelight Productions and the Curtis Theatre.

VOLUNTEER SIGN-UP

We ask that every parent participate on at least one parent committee. Please fill out a Volunteer Application and bring it with you to a rehearsal or mail it to the Curtis Theatre.

PARENT VOLUNTEER COMMITTEES

During this production we will need help from everyone! Please share your talent with us and become one of the many parent volunteers needed to orchestrate this production. This is truly your opportunity to take part in the excitement. A brief description of the committees is outlined below. Please review the list and sign-up wherever you can assist. Your participation will allow you to be more involved with your child on a truly memorable project. The following are ways you can volunteer:

PARENT SUPERVISION: The Parent Supervision Committee ensures that cast members are supervised during tech week and performances. Therefore, we need as many volunteers as possible. The Committee Chair schedules the volunteers for Cast Check-In and Backstage Supervision. Volunteers select the show or shows they are able to work.

MEN AND MOMS IN BACK (M.I.B.'S): This Committee serves as the Running Crew for each performance. The Men and Moms in Back work backstage to move set pieces, change scenery, and organize props during each performance.

COSTUME COMMITTEE: Although Stagelight Productions offers costume rentals, assistance is needed with sewing and costume organization.

GALA COMMITTEE: The Gala Committee will organize Opening Night festivities.

CAST PARTY COMMITTEE: The Cast Party Committee will organize the Cast Party.

BALLOON & GIFT SALES COMMITTEE: This Committee will coordinate balloon and gift sales during the performance run.

CAST LUNCH COMMITTEE: This committee organizes the ordering, pick-up, and delivery of the cast lunch.

SILENT AUCTION COMMITTEE: This committee organizes and runs the Silent Auction during each Opening Night Gala.

VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES

All Volunteers, Staff and Contractors for Brea's Youth Theatre and Stagelight Productions shall follow the guidelines of supervision as follows:

1. Two-deep Leadership: Two (2) registered, adult volunteers and/or parents of a participant will supervise the children in the cast at all times. Any adult and/or parent in the Backstage Area of the Theatre must be either a paid staff member of Stagelight Productions, the City of Brea, or a registered Volunteer. (Please note: Registered volunteers must have a completed and signed volunteer application on file with the City of Brea.) At no time shall an adult and child be alone together without the presence of another adult. One-on-one contact between adults and children is not permitted. This includes the Theatre's Backstage Area (i.e. Restrooms, Green Room, Cement Room, Dressing Rooms, etc.), as well as areas inside the Brea Senior Center and Civic Center. In the event that a Personal Conference is necessary, the meeting is to be conducted in view of other adults and children.

2. Respect Privacy: Adult Supervisors and Volunteers must respect the privacy of youth cast members in situations such as, but not limited to, changing clothes or using the restrooms. Adult Supervisors and Volunteers should intrude only in the event that health and safety are at risk. Adults are responsible to protect their own privacy in similar situations.

PROGRAM COSTS

Registration and costume rental are the only required costs associated with the Brea's Youth Theatre Program. T-Shirts, gift sales, and ads are available as optional additional purchases. We strive to create the scale and scope of Broadway in a welcoming environment that is fun for the entire family.
